

Celebrate Aboriginal Languages Month

Aboriginal Language Apps

Did you know that there are language learning apps in many of the NWT's official languages? Download one from iTunes and check it out today!

Yati – This Tlicho Language dictionary app includes over 1300 words and phrases, along with pictures, sounds and example phrases.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

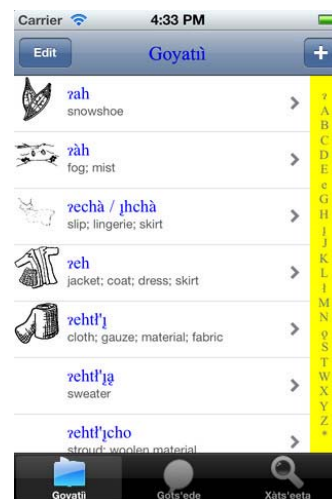

Made by: Uvic Linguistics

Tłı̨cho Intro – This app offers language learning activities, games and quizzes in the Tlicho Language.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment and the Yamozha Kue Society

Gwich'in Alpha – This app offers a variety of different vocabulary and language learning activities in Gwich'in.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment and the Yamozha Kue Society

South Slavey Intro – This app includes vocabulary practice and well as games and quizzes in South Slavey.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment and the Yamozha Kue Society

Celebrate Aboriginal Languages Month

Shutaot'ine Intro – This app offers a variety of different language learning activities in North Slavey.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment and the Yamozha Kue Society

Denededline Intro – Use this app to practice using everyday vocabulary in Chipewyan.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment and the Yamozha Kue Society

Tusaalanga – This Inuktitut Language app includes vocabulary, audio files, lessons, a personal glossary and a syllabics-to-roman alphabet converter.

Price: Free

For: iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch

Made by: Pirurvik Centre

