Dear Mr. Paine:

I am contacting you on behalf of the Recording Industry Association of America, Inc. (RIAA) and its member record companies. The RIAA is a trade association whose member companies create, manufacture and distribute approximately eighty-five (85) percent of all legitimate sound recordings sold in the United States.

We have determined that users of your system or network have infringed our member record companies' copyrighted sound recordings.

Enclosed is a subpoena compliant with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. The subpoena requires that you provide the RIAA with information concerning the individuals offering infringing material described in the attached notice.

As is stated in the attached subpoena, you are required to disclose to the RIAA information sufficient to identify the infringers. This would include the individuals' names, physical addresses, IP addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, payment information, account updates and account history.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me via email at antipiracy@riaa.com, via telephone at (202) 775-0101, or via mail at RIAA, 1025 F Street N.W., 10th Floor, Washington, D.C., 20004.

Sincerely,

3. The purpose for which this subpoena is sought is to obtain the identities of the individuals assigned to these websites who have reproduced and have offered for distribution our members' copyrighted sound recordings without their authorization. This information will only be used for the purposes of protecting the rights granted to our members, the sound recording copyright owner, under Title II of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information or belief.

Executed at Washington, District of Columbia, on June 14, 2019.

Dear Mr. Paine:

I am contacting you on behalf of the Recording Industry Association of America, Inc. (RIAA) and its member record companies. The RIAA is a trade association whose member companies create, manufacture and distribute approximately eighty-five (85) percent of all legitimate sound recordings sold in the United States. Under penalty of perjury, we submit that the RIAA is authorized to act on behalf of its member companies on matters involving the infringement of their sound recordings, audiovisual works and images, including enforcing their copyrights and common law rights on the Internet.

We have learned that your service is hosting the below-referenced websites on its network. These websites are offering recordings which are owned by one or more of our member companies and have not been authorized for this kind of use, including without limitation that referenced at the URLs below. We have a good faith belief that this activity is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law. We assert that the information in this notification is accurate, based upon the data available to us.

We ask that you consider the widespread and repeated infringing nature of the site operators' conduct, and whether the sites' activities violate your terms of service and/or your company's repeat infringer policy.

This e-mail does not constitute a waiver of any right to recover damages incurred by virtue of any such unauthorized activities, and such rights as well as claims for other relief are expressly retained. In addition, our use of your service's required notice form, if applicable, is merely meant to facilitate removal of the infringing material listed below and is not meant to suggest or imply that your activities and services are within the scope of the DMCA safe harbor.

You may contact me at RIAA, 1025 F Street N.W., 10th Floor, Washington, D.C., 20004, Tel. (202) 775-0101, or e-mail antipiracy@riaa.com, to discuss this notice.

Sincerely,
