

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From November 16 to November 16, 2020, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1160 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is  $\pm 2.9$  percentage points.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 50 (<50) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<50 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

Response	Topline	Democrat	Independent / Third Party	Republican	Female	Male	Under 45	45+	No College	College	Asian	Black or African American	White
Trump's refusal to concede can impact election results and may mean that he remains president.	29	12	31	44	26	32	25	31	31	26	11	17	32
While unfortunate, Trump's refusal to concede can't change the election result. Joe Biden will still become president.	59	79	59	41	61	58	58	60	55	66	77	69	57
